

No equipment or supplies shall be disposed of until permission has been received from the Administration. he or she shall determine whether the material involved has value, and if such shall be the case, he or she shall arrange for the sale of the material. If material does not have value, the proper disposal of the books, equipment, and/or supplies shall be determined by the Administration.

Law Reference:

Appendix Reference:

Date Adopted: June 8, 2004

Revision Dates:

Last Review Date: June 8, 2004