

STUDENT RELEASE PRECAUTIONSJHC

Any student being released during the school day must be signed out through the school office when he or she leaves and must report to the office when he or she returns. Students who are ill may be released through the nurses' office.

Students will be released only when legally authorized by the parent, legal guardian, or person designated on the student's emergency card.

Law Reference:

Appendix Reference:

Date Adopted:

Revision Dates:

Last Review Date: